

Abstract:

5 A curable coating composition which is based on a hydroxyl-functional binder and a blocked polyisocyanate, comprising a suspended finely divided, wax-coated polyamide. This composition exhibits a number of superior properties including having a greatly improved abrasion value .